Club Meeting Activities

The December meeting of the Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society came to order at 7:00 pm. There were 24 members and guests in attendance. The minutes were approved . Treasurer reported that we still had money in the bank.

Announcements: Gene Raddatz passed away November 24th from cancer.

The opportunity for someone or a group of people to become the Bellows editor is still open. The current editor doesn't feel that he can provide enough time to do it justice, and publish it with enough notice to have members participate in the meeting programs.

The club will remain in the same location for 2011 with a re-negotiated contract, for less than the hall's original required rent.

Club Business

Our December Christmas dinner meeting was a success. The food that Stan Kirlin organized and provided was well received by all, with no one going away even close to anything but stuffed from such wonderful choices. Eighteen members and guests participating in the gift exchange. The gift selection was so great that there was little trading of gift after opening. Santa (Bill Adams) was a little late and decided to come a little more casual than usual, but was well received and everyone was happy to see him. (some of the many pictures on the next page).

Please provide your E-mail address to pspcsociety@gmail.com.

This is also the mailbox to send any information that anyone would like to place in the newsletter as well (Suggestions, program suggestions, etc). THANKS!
